You can hate that woman
Want to get her back
Waste a lot of time, girl,
Thinking 'bout that
How's it help you
Giving her flack?
Ain't it time to get on with your life?

You can't do nothing 'bout it
What's in the past
You thought you found a true man
Well, these things change fast
She ain't the one
Broke the promise he trashed
Ain't it time to get on with your life?

What kind of story you in?
What kind of prize you hoping to win?
Look in the mirror: What do you see?
A beautiful girl... Feeling empty

She never meant you no harm
Just fell hard for him
Got over her head
Way out on a limb
Thinking on her
Tears you up from within
Ain't it time to get on with your life?

Ain't it time to get on with your life?

Ain't it time to get on with your life?
