

How Can It End Like This?

You were never mine to lose
Not one night. Not one day
If you never stood by me, baby
How can you walk away?

If we never crossed the line
And you know we never kissed
If we never started nothing
Tell me how?
How can it end like this?

Still you were never one to hide
Oh, that burning look in your eye
Still you never came to me
I know--Lord don't I know
So how can you tell me to go?
Tell me, how can it be so?

Now I'm standing all alone
Like all those times before
If you never opened it, baby
Tell me, how can you close the door?

Still I was never one to hide
All that love that's inside me
Still I never, I never come to you
You know—I know you know
So how can you tell me to go?
Tell me, how can it be so?

If we never crossed the line
And you know we never kissed
Lord, what we missed
If we never started nothing
Tell me, tell me how?
How can it end like this?
