

I Say Baby

I say baby what you wanna do?
You say I want this, but I want that too
And I say baby what you gonna do?
You say I want that, but I want this too

You got that magnetism, oh yeah. But it don't do you no good
You got no arrow to your compass. And you don't go the way that you really should

And I say baby what you wanna do?
You say I want this, but I want that too
And I say baby what you gonna do?
You say I want that, but I want this too

You got no sense of direction. Going back and forth and round and round
You got to make a selection. Are you gonna go there, babe? You gonna stick around?

And I say baby what you wanna do?
You say I want this, but I want that too
And I say baby what you gonna do?
You say I want that, but I want this too

You got to chose one, man, and lose one. You just can't have it both ways
Flip floppin' foolin' around may feel like fun. But you ain't gonna keep two women in play

And I say baby what you wanna do?
You say I want this, but I want that too
And I say baby what you gonna do?
You say I want that, but I want this too

And you say: baby what you gonna do?
You know I want that, but I want you too
And I say baby what you gonna do?
You can't have that! Not and have this too
You can't have that! Not and have this too
You can't have that!
Not and have this too.
Babe what you gonna do?
