

Missing What I Never Had

I know it ain't right, but I'm going to miss
That look in your eye. That never tasted kiss.
Don't play with fire--I guess that's true
Cause I'm missing' what I never had with you
Missing what I never had with you.

There's times you get to me when you ain't even there
Ghost of your smile hanging in the air
The echo of your voice sweet talking in my mind
The ways I 'spect you got to treat a woman kind
What else can I do? I'm missing what I never had with you.

Should feel good 'bout playing by the rules
But I'm feeling low letting go
The sweet dream of you

Good bye baby. See you around.
The wish of you got to go. Get my feet back on the ground
Still say "hi." I'll still laugh at what you do.
But I'll be missing what I never had with you.
Missing what I never had with you.

What I never had with you.
What I never had with you.
What I never had with you.
What I never had with you.
I never had you
